

O'CONNELL STREET

Leasing Attraction Street Precinct Fact Sheet

O'Connell Street is located in North Adelaide, close to the CBD, with its architectural origins in the 1830s.

O'Connell Street has over 200 shops, a cinema complex and an extensive range of food choices from fast food to chic cuisine and upmarket takeaways complemented by the North Adelaide Village Shopping Centre anchored by a popular Foodland supermarket.

The street is close to some of Adelaide's most beautiful and historic residences complemented by English style pubs, luxury furnishing outlets, chic office space, retail services and an atmosphere of bustling sophistication.

Key Features

- 225 retailers and small businesses are located in O'Connell Street.
- Wallis Piccadilly Cinemas, O'Hotel, Domo Homewares
- 43 restaurants, cafés, pubs
- North Adelaide Village Shopping Centre
- Foodland Supermarket, Goodlife Gym, undercover parking for over 200 cars.
- Adelaide Oval development 2km south
- Central Business District 3km south within 3km
- 4,500 local North Adelaide residents
- 54,500 residents within 5km
- 35,000 cars per day on average travel along O'Connell Street
- Attracts customers from north and north eastern suburbs
- Historic district homes and buildings
- FREE connector bus frequent service from the City
- Office accommodation

