DO’S & DON'TS WHEN RIDING

DO:
- Obey all road signs and traffic signals
- Wear a helmet at all times when riding a bike, it’s the law!
- Give a warning to pedestrians on paths if necessary to avert danger
- Phone 000 for police and ambulance assistance if you are involved in an accident
- Lock your bike to a bike rack when unattended to avoid theft

DON’T:
- Ride in Rundle Mall or the Botanic Gardens of Adelaide
- Take bikes on buses or trams
- Use a mobile phone while riding – it’s illegal
- Ride more than 1.5 metres apart when riding side-by-side

Please note: People of all ages can ride bikes on footpaths unless otherwise indicated. Please give way to pedestrians at all times, otherwise indicated. Please give way to vehicles entering or exiting an intersecting road – just as you would when riding on a road.

PARK LANDS TRAIL

Adelaide’s Park Lands are the city’s defining feature and greatest asset with 930 hectares of open space, it’s South Australia’s largest shared backyard. Soak up the great outdoors and enjoy the many playgrounds, kiosks, historical sights, manicured gardens, picnic and BBQ areas.

The Park Lands Trail is a fun, safe and easy way to explore Adelaide’s beautiful Park Lands. The Trail is a series of connected shared walking and cycling paths which loop the city and is shown by the blue line on the map (right).
